Are you pale, weak, easily tired, and do you lack nerve power? Ask your doctor if Ayer's Sarsaparilla would not be good for you. He knows, and will advise you wisely. Not a drop of alcohol in this medicine. It puts red corpuscles into the blood, gives steady, even power to the nerves; and all without stimulation. Make no mistake. Take only those medicines the best doctors endorse. Ask your own doctor.

INTER-ISLAND HAPPENINGS

LIHUE, March 22.—The Chinese population of the Lihue district were hosts at an elaborate luncheon Sunday afternoon, at the headquarters of the Hung On and the C. E. R. societies in celebration of the establishment of their new Republic. The attractive invitations which had been issued to the prominent people of the district, met with a hearty response.

Promptly at one o'clock, a volume of sputtering fire crackers announced the opening of festivities, the Lihue band following with the highly appropriate air, "Liberty Bells." At 1:30 Mr. Ah Chuck, Jr., announced luncheon, and the three tables which had been spread, and which were graced each with that renowned delicacy—a whole roast pig, were soon filled by guests with happy anticipation. All the well known Chinese delicacies were there in abundance, tastefully rounded out with a champagne punch brewed in "just a little bit more" style.

Ah Chuck, Jr., delivered the speech of the day, concluding as follows: "In the histories of the four dynasties, Chow, Chin and Han, the names of our various small tribes now could not be found; and the only living ones as elected by Heaven to occupy that great country belonged to our tribe. Perhaps it is said that our territory was under the entire control of another race. However, we had the natural strength of absorbing others; and though they ruled us, they are now subdued. At present the Manchu emperor has abdicated, and our dependencies of Manchuria, Mongolia, Asiatic Mohammedan and Tibet have united together to form the whole nation 'The Chung Wah Republic.' This is the people, and the nation is established by its race. It is indeed rejoicing, and we will rejoice forever.

"A nation of this great world must exist. 'A people being blessed by Heaven are now in peace. 'Thinking back to the time of antiquity, our first ancestors seem near. 'Who had selected for us this beautiful spot which will brighten many thousands of our future years? The Rev. Hans Isenberg, in a few extremely well chosen remarks, responded, concluding by expressing, in behalf of those present, the sincere hope for the unqualified success of the infant republic. The speaker later, making further remarks on the general situation in China today, expressed his hope that all who are able would contribute his mite to the fund for the relief of the poor, starving, famine-stricken unfortunates of the new republic. Mr. Isenberg's remarks were highly applauded. Other speakers included Supervisor H. D. Wishard, Sheriff W. H. Rice, C. S. Dole and Mr. Rohrig, each voicing his aloha for the new Chinese republic.

Among the invited guests were Rev. Hans Isenberg, H. D. Wishard, W. H. Rice, C. A. Rice, Arthur Rice, Philip Rice, Mr. Carter, Mr. Winter, Mr. K. C. Hopper, C. W. McClannahan, Mr. Ruth, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Hills, Mr. Palmer, Peter Berg, Mr. Delbert, E. B. Bridgewater, Mr. Andermann, C. S. Dole, P. Busch, Mr. Grote, Sr., Mr. Grote, Jr., Mr. Carls, Dr. Glaisyer, Mr. Seibel, Mr. Eggerking, Mr. Cassebeer, Mr. Scheiber, C. W. Spitz, Wm. Stewart, Frank Crawford, Mr. Fernandez, J. S. Perry, P. Oliver, Jas. Delaney, P. Fitzgibbons, Mr. Ching, Wm. Ellis, Sr., Wm. Ellis, Jr., Luan Tai and Sun Yuck.

The reception committee was composed of C. Ah Chong, Ah Chuck, Jr., L. Yuen Tim, Akana Ai, Chow Yuen, Leong A. Kim, C. Ah Moi, Leong Ching, T. Yau, Chun Ting, C. Apana, Ah Chuck, Sr., P. Akana, Hoek Shee, Chang Chip and Hook Lund.

Grand Jury Report.
The grand jury consisting of W. Danforth, foreman; S. Robinson, clerk; F. Carter, A. D. Hills, R. Manthei, John Mendea, Jr., C. W. Smith, J. H. Cummings, Ben Lizama, A. Gaudall, J. Mahaula, H. Brandt, H. C. Sheldon, H. W. Kinney, J. B. Cummings, D. K. Hayselden, L. Conradt, H. Kuhlmann and J. S. Chandler presented its final report, returning indictments as follows:

Simeon Victor, assault and battery with a weapon; Kapukui Olopio, assault and battery with a weapon; Anakalea, incest; Mrs. Rosaline Ah Poon, incest.

Marmeto Flores, charged with murder in the first degree and Dan Aka, with disinterment of a human body were discharged; "no bill" being reported in each case.

Mrs. Wing Returns Home.
KILAUEA, March 14.—After a six months' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Myers, during which time she has been the motif for numerous social functions, Mrs. Stephen Wing, aunt to Manager Jack Myers, left for her home in San Francisco last Saturday, accompanied by Mr. Myers, as far as Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers entertained at a "500" party on Saturday evening to a number of invited guests, in honor of Mrs. Wing. During her visit here, Mrs. Wing has become extremely attached to our climate and our people, and she sincerely hopes to be able to return in the not distant future.

Waimea Chinese Parade.

WAIMEA, March 14.—The Chinese populace gathered in one tremendous mass meeting here today in a celebration of their new republic. A grand procession, headed by the Waipa Glee Club, followed by hundreds of prettily dressed children, was the chief attraction of the day. Every available auto was pressed into service. Sheriff Crowell very kindly permitted an extra police force to assure order during the day. Every one enjoyed himself and the day will long be remembered as one of the most important in the lives of our American-Chinese.—Garden Island.

Kekaha Road to the Bad.

KEKAHA, March 17.—A mud hole which is causing many auto owners and drivers no little annoyance, is that which is the result of evident carelessness on the part of the plantation in allowing the surplus flume water to flood the road. Several machines have been hung up at this point, and complaints concerning this state of affairs are allowed to go unheeded. There is considerable traffic over this stretch of road, and the people have a right to expect better conditions than at present exist.—Garden Island.

Prominent Attorney Ill.

Attorney Rawlins who came up in connection with the Kekaha murder case, had the misfortune to fall from a steamer berth while coming over, which resulted in bringing on trouble for which he had not long since been treated. After several days in the local hospital, he was conveyed on board the Kinau Saturday and taken home.—Garden Island.

Boy Drowned.

HILO, March 22.—The six-year-old son of Joe Moniz Cantana, railroad blacksmith, was drowned in the Waiuku river, near the railroad bridge, Tuesday morning, while playing on the bank with a number of other children. He slipped and fell in. Some of the larger boys endeavored to reach him, but in vain. A Hawaiian man later dived and recovered the body.

Fourteen Are Freed.

LIHUE, March 23.—The fourteen Japanese indicted for murder in the first degree, and charged with complicity in the murder of the Japanese informer who spied on illicit sale of liquor, were today discharged by Circuit Judge Robinson. The discharge was due to lack of evidence.

That no evidence was brought to show that any individual under indictment had struck the blow that killed the informer is the statement of the Prosecuting Attorney, S. K. Kaeo, rendering further proceedings unnecessary.

Kohala Midget Items.

KOHALA, March 20.—The boys have been setting type out of doors under the cypress trees, because of the bad light and ventilation in our cellar. Sometimes when one of the boys is sick, we roll up our sleeves, and out on the front lanai, receive callers and stick type at the same time.

In our account of the lost blind man, it was not mentioned to us that the police, at the instigation of Mrs. McDougall, searched diligently for him.

A wrong impression may have been made by the mention of his wedding and planting banana trees; if he did such work it was only to amuse himself. He was tenderly cared for by Mrs. McDougall who spared no effort in searching for him. Our informant gave us all the facts that occurred to him, but the fact remains that the man had been lost two weeks before any word came to us, from those who knew all about it, and we had no hint at the time that anyone was specially interested in him.

Mrs. Antone Caldeira returned from Honolulu last week, from a critical operation in the hospital. She is still weak, but improving.

Muchi, a Hawaiian, took too much "dago red," on March 11, from one of Niuli's blind pigs. He went to Asu's coffee-shop, and raised Cain with the Chinese, breaking the doors, chasing the inmates and firing crockery at them. The police were summoned, and Deputy Sheriff Kunane soon had him in Kanilana's Hotel, at Kapapa. Both the wretch who sold him the poison, and those who are coining big dividends in supplying blind pigs with liquid hell, are unmolested. What a farce!

Who wants pumpkins? Go to Punahoa homesteads, where thousands are rotting in the fields, because the farmers are not able to sell them, and have not enough pigs to eat them. Mr. Frank Woods is buying many. There's not much comfort for the small farmer in pumpkins until people here cultivate the New England appetite for "pumpkin pies."

The four-masted schooner Melrose, from Port Townsend, arrived at Mahukona Saturday, with over a million feet of lumber. It is the largest cargo ever brought to that port.

William Hattie, assistant bookkeeper of the Pacific Sugar Mill office, left by last Saturday's stage for Hilo, where he was to act as best man at the wedding on Tuesday evening, of his sister Annie to Mr. Sidney Birds-eye.

The Kukuhae School received its last finishing touches last week, under Mr. Bohnenberg's supervision, and it looks fine among the attractive houses in that village. On Saturday afternoon, a party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Abel Makekau, in one of the school rooms for the children and their parents, and friends also. While in the evening, the doors of the newly completed room were opened by the musical strains of Caruso's solo, and Jackson's waka-waka-band. Then, glided the lovers of dreamy waltzes and two-steps. The dance continued to late hours, and halted only when the Sabbath hours were about to be ushered in.

Kona.

A man who was sitting between two railroad cars, fell down and had his leg crushed, so that he may die. Miss Esther Kopke is beginning to play tennis.

A number of Kona citizens petition the supervisors for an appropriation of $3000 for the repair of the road leading down to Kailua from the junction of the Maui road at Honokahau.

Sheriff Pua has appointed John W. Atkins to be a police officer for South Kona. This is a new position. The sheriff says he filled it because provision was made therefor by the supervisors, and the officer was needed, anyhow.

First Sugar Mill.

George Bond remembers that first sugar mill—it was in their cow-yard. The mill was turned by bullock power, and the juice boiled in whale blubber kettles. The sugar was put up in bags made of rushes and hung up for the molasses to dry out. The children liked to stick their fingers into the bags and suck the sweetness off.

It must tickle with internal laughter every rib in a plantation mule, to see an automobile go skidding over the bank, as Yamanaka's did last week, and to be the husky chap that has to be called out to get it up again. There's such a thing as poetic justice, even in the life of a mule.

Mr. Stewart C. Bell is back on his old job at Kohala Plantation—time-keeper—and Mr. Jamie, who held that position while Bell was away, is now working for the plantation at his old trade, carpenter.

Have you heard the warblers warble any of these cool, grey mornings? They ought to have a hearty welcome, since they are the about only feathered prima donnas whose route takes in Hawaii. True, the meadow-lark we have always with us; but one must go to the hills to hear him.

Civic League Backs Hospital.

At a meeting of the Kohala Civic League, called last Wednesday, to consider the matter of a hospital, the following named gentlemen were present: President, Arthur Mason; Secretary, P. K. O'Brien; Messrs. Atkins, Holstein, Woods, Renton, Hind, Atkins-Wight, Tulloch, Bond and Cowan.

Hon. H. L. Holstein gave the information that the $5000 appropriated by last Legislature for a hospital in North Kohala, was under the control of a Board of Commissioners consisting of Messrs. Marston Campbell, Superintendent of Public Works; James K. Lewis, chairman of the Hawaii County Board of Supervisors, and Albert Horner, A. W. Carter and Robert Hind. Unless expended by July 1915 it will lapse. He thought if the Civic League voiced the desire of Kohala to have this money used for the purpose intended, the Commissioners and the Territorial Government would co-operate heartily. If it lapses, Kohala's representatives in the Legislature would have it thrown up to them in asking for future appropriations.

Mr. Holstein therefore offered a resolution moving the appointment of a committee consisting of Mr. Geo. C. Watt, Mr. George P. Tulloch and Mr. John Hind, to confer with the Commissioners and do all in their power to get the matter put through.

In response to a general desire, Mr. Holstein was subsequently added to this number, as a committee of consultation. The whole matter went through with unanimity, and Kohala may feel sure that, while the hospital matter seems to have been dead, (Continued on page twelve.)
